

3 I'd love to be a movie star (Conditional sentences type 2)

Finish these sentences about being a movie star. All the sentences are conditional sentences type 2.

- If a famous director chose (choose) me for one of his films, I'd / would be (be) famous too.
- I ... (go) to Hollywood if I ... (become) a famous actor.
- I ... (live) here if I ... (be) rich.
- If I ... (act) in a movie, all my friends ... (come) to see me.
- If I ... (have) lots of money, I ... (buy) a yacht.
- If I ... (play) a part in a movie, I ... (meet) famous actors every day on the film set.
- But the problem is, if I ... (be) a movie star, I ... (see) my family very often.
- Perhaps I ... (be) so happy if I ... (be) a film star!

▶ GF 4: Conditional sentences (2) (p.167)

4 SPEAKING Having a conversation ▶ SF p.146

Talk to your partner for about two minutes about something that interests you – films, magazines, music, what you did last weekend, the town where you live, ... The phrases below will help you.

Starting a conversation	Hello. / Hi. / My name's ... / What's your name? / ...
Likes and dislikes	I like / don't like ... / What about you? / And you? / ...
Showing interest	Really? / Oh, that's interesting! / Sounds great! / Wow! / ...
Agreeing and disagreeing	Yes, me too. / That's right! / Oh, I don't. / Sorry, I don't agree. / ...
Asking questions	So when did you ...? / Why ...? / How long ...? / Where ...? / Sorry, can you say that again, please? / Sorry, what's that? / ...
Ending the conversation	See you soon. / Bye!

5 WORDS Jim and Kate (Words that describe feelings)

a) Complete these sentences with words or phrases from the box on the right.

- Jim and Kate have been together for a month now and they ... still ... each other.
- Kate was ... when Jim asked her if she'd like to go out with him. She thought he liked Laura.
- Jim wasn't nervous on their first date. He is usually very ...
- But when Kate left his MP3 player on the bus last week, he was very ... with her.
- Sometimes Kate is ... when Jim tries to be funny – his jokes are very strange!
- At first she didn't want to meet Jim's parents because she always feels a bit ... with new people.

angry • be afraid • be mad about sb./sth. • bored • cool • cross • depressed • different • disappointed • embarrassed • excited • great • happy • impressed • independent • jealous • lonely • (to) look forward to sth. • nervous • proud • relaxed • sad • safe • scared • silly • strange • surprised • terrible • tired • shy

- When Kate met her old boyfriend Pete at a party, Jim was a bit ... at first – until he saw that she wasn't interested in Pete any more.
- They're ... the summer holidays this year: they're going to Canada for three weeks!

b) Write six more sentences about Jim and Kate with words you haven't used in a).