

Pl a)

You must be reliable and with a lot of energy.

You have to help on the farm, and in the farm shop

Pl b)

- I've got the CV of someone called Lena Dickhaus

- She's got these qualifications: Studying for Fachoberschulreife, Language: English (8 years), French (4 years)

- She did some work experience in a zoo shop for 3 weeks.

- She is interested in nature and animals.

S. 81, note

b)

- I've got the CV of someone called Arda Demir

- He's got the qualifications: 2008 Fachoberschulreife

- He did some work experience in a garage as a mechanic

- He's interested in helping on the farm and repairing cars and motorbikes.

S. 88, no Pl c

Pl c)

might be^(*)

I think Arda is better for this job because he helps his uncle on his farm that means he has some work experience and he can repair for example the tractor on the farm because he has start^{ed} an apprenticeship as a mechanic.

Wie schon geschrieben in WhatsApp: gut gemacht!

() Die „Möglichkeitsform“ ist hier die bessere Auswahl.*