

Fragen zu den Seiten 6-10 von „Worth a Dragon“

1. Why is Ramariri relieved that the soldier throws the saddlebags on his back?

Because he can't do it himself. Human hands are needed for that.

2. What is he afraid of when he leaves his cote?

He is afraid of lightnings.

3. In which direction does Ramariri fly? Why?

He flies to south because he flies with a strong airstream. He flies toward home. The Dominion. The Lands of Haz'Drazen.

4. Where is their first stop? Why does the dragon stop? Why doesn't he need any food or drink?

They stop on the first floating island because the dragon know that humans need breaks. He doesn't need any food or drink because he think that he will die.

5. What is wrong with the soldier?

He has a gaping wound in his side.

6. What are the names of the humans?

His name is Jandar.

7. Where does the soldier want to go with the princess?

Far away where nobody knows them.

8. What is a brambaraft? Why is Ramariri looking for a special one?

Bambaraft were strange things. There were always some just before the sky stream entrance.

9. How does Ramariri know what will happen to him because his rider is dead?

He will die too because when the rider is dead the dragon will die too. He saw a dragon die like this once.

10. What is so special about the princess?

She has / is magic. She's a special girl. Tough. Clever. Courageous down to the bones.